- AIACHE is the only ecumenical forum for higher education in India.
- Since AIACHE is a registered ecumenical society of higher educational institutions in India, it is the right of all Colleges, professional Institutions, (state/ deemed-to-be) universities/ community colleges and other higher educational institutions under the management of Christian churches/denominations or those managed by societies or trusts of Christians, and Christian individuals, to apply for the membership of the Society. The institution, at the AGM and TGM, shall be represented by a Christian member holding the post of chairman/manager/secretary/director, principal/vice chancellor.
- Individual Friends of AIACHE need to pay Rs.2000/- only once.
Faculty, Alumni and Benefactors of member colleges, Christian educators working in non-christian or Government colleges/universities, alumni of member colleges and other well-wishers of AIACHE can join as Individual Friends of AIACHE. They are the supporters of AIACHE activities. They can register and attend the Triennial and AGM even without any special invitation. Their free services can be availed of at any of the national, regional or institutional programmes.
